Once in our care, we transport you/your person to Washington, where the human body is gently transformed into compost over 60-90 days (time depends on the person’s size). Terramated remains are returned to the Earth and used to manage and protect Return Home’s 8-acre conservation forest in Washington State. Upon request, composted remains can be returned to your friends and family. The price varies based on the quantity of remains being shipped.

Remains can be stored in a permanent container, scattered at a meaningful location, or used in a memorial planting.

Direct Cremation..... $ 1,895

In this process, the body is reduced by flames. Once the body's tissues have been completely and reduced by the flames, the remaining bones are reduced to a fine powder and returned to the family. Remains can be stored in a permanent container or scattered at a meaningful location or used in a memorial planting. Witness Cremations are also available for those who want to be there in person for an additional cost.

This price does not include the price of casket, outer burial containers, or cemetery costs.
